O Light of Life!

The Heritage Chorale of Lancaster

presents its 2010 Spring Concert under the artistic direction of Barry L. Sawyer

The Heritage Chorale of Lancaster is a 48-member, volunteer chorale dedicated to excellence in the choral art form. With a repertoire spanning the 16th through 20th centuries, the chorale has performed at Colonial Williamsburg, Longwood Gardens, the Washington National Cathedral, and at churches and historical institutions throughout the Lancaster County area. Chorale members are choral enthusiasts drawn from near and far and from all walks of life to share their love of choral singing. Visit our website www.theheritagechorale.org for further information.

The Heritage Chorale's concert program combines sacred and secular choral expressions that evoke the life-giving, life-renewing spirit of spring, such as Ave Verum by Camille Saint Saens, Alleluia! O Praise the Lord Most Holy by J.S. Bach, Open Thou Mine Eyes by John Rutter, O Light of Life! by Mack Wilberg, short works by Brahms, Copland, and Quilter, and a mix of traditional folk songs, madrigals, and spirituals. Please join us as we celebrate our new season!
